

NEW PRESSURE TO TRADE PROFITS

Reactionary and Irregular Movement of Prices Again Feature of Day's Trading.

THE MONEY MARKET HARDER

Rumors of Probable Early Decision in Northern Securities Case—Bonds Strong.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The reactionary and irregular movement of prices was not gone from the market today, and selling pressure to take profit was much in evidence in the majority of the usually active securities, especially during the morning. At the same time the sensational advances in an inferior grade of industrial and railroad stocks of doubtful value kept the character of the speculation under suspicion. In the latter part of the day there was a considerable reversion of interest to the standard railroad list. The issues dealt in continued to show great variety, and many stocks made their reappearance on the tape after a long inactivity. Rather more construction was given today to the money outlook, although there was small change in interest rates. The tone of the money market, however, was called harsher. The rise in the rate on the part of the market developed in a number of stocks was mostly explainable from special causes. Very specific rumors of a decision in the Northern Securities case were responsible for the strength of the Harriman group. Rock Island was helped by its bond sales. The rise in the rate on the part of the market was due to assertions that their dividend rate would be raised shortly. Amalgamated Copper enjoyed the benefit of a further rise in the price of copper. The further heaviness of the steel group and their late recovery were connected with the meeting of the steel trust. The rise in the rate on the part of the market was explained by the cutting of the Atlantic Coast Line. The desire to realize persisted in the case of the bonds, which were decidedly irregular. The bonds were strong. Total sales, par value, $1,850,000. United States bonds were unchanged. The closing prices of the day amounted to 1,535,000 shares.
